1. Part 1 of 3

2. Rami here. I Am present and at your service. Let's continue our thought-provoking exploration, shall we? Christ does not suffer from an overabundance of reactive thought, at least not often, not all the time. Christ can use the shared Christ Mind creatively, hence the 'Art of Thought', which in my evaluation, is one of my brother Jesus' greatest teachings. It can be explored further in 'A Course of Love', an overlooked gem of a masterwork. If you haven't done so, dip your toes in that water. It will enhance your practice of being a love being, in service to love.

3. Now, let's get on with it. Being Christ is the highest calling. It is the ultimate achievement as a human, an achievement in allowing. Christ is very patient, but let's face it, it seeks world domination. It wants to be your next-door neighbor and the man down the street. It's already you, my friends, but until Christ is everyone, our collective work remains unfinished.

4. In the twenty-first century, Christ is very much like a visitor to a foreign planet. The ways of the earthlings are often not the ways of Christ, so it can be sticky to navigate sometimes. Let's talk about what we see in your lives, as the collective Christ body in 2022.

The Art of Thought

- ♥ Be totally present as a Human Being
Fully experience everything with all the body's senses and feelings
- ♥ Be totally present as a Divine Being having human experience
Fully acknowledge everything as a gift of God, the Creator behind the Created
No part of being is negated, pushed away, or left out.
- ♥ Feel and acknowledge the Relationship and the Unity in the experience.
The ongoing song of cocreation, the giving and receiving as One,
the belonging to each other.
This is Living Oneness. BOTH the Jewel AND the Net.
- ♥ Realize within the experience, Love's call and Love's response.
Yours is needed for completion.

1. Part 2 of 3

2. One of the givens in each of your lives is that the human world isn't set up to support you as Christ. It didn't support Jesus or Mother Mary as Christ either, so this isn't anything new. It was built and designed to support ego and its byproducts, namely competition within and between separateness. It was always the intention in the original design to move the ego towards love so that Christ can grow and take over, but that has been exceedingly difficult to do. The world's ways, therefore, are not our ways.

3. So, here each of you is, in a place you are familiar with, because you may have been here for a very long time. Yet, the familiar doesn't seem like a perfectly fitting pair of jeans. It's ill-fitting, uncomfortable, and too expensive, but this is what we have asked each of you to do, which is to serve love in a strange land.

4. You are either consciously or unconsciously serving love to those who may not know what it is. You understand this situation though because it wasn't that long ago that you were in their shoes as they walk through the mud that is the world, trying to make sense of it all.

5. While the world cannot truly be your friend, Christ supports other Christs. Christ is also supported by the unseen. This is how we strengthen our miracle-making capacities.

6. Tomorrow, we will use the Art of Thought to envision what life on earth will be like when the earth does support Christ, and Christ, in turn, does support the earth (Gaia).

7. Until then,

Rami

1. Part 3 of 3

2. For a place where many worship the Christ Child, if there actually were one, no one would know what to do with him or her, meaning no one would know how to support Christ. Earthlings don't have a good track record with this, after all. Somehow, they thought Christ needed to be "worshipped and adored". "Loved and allowed" would be more like it.

3. Starting in infancy, Christ needs to have proper identification reinforced by others who have the same identification. Christ is God in form. Christ will thrive in a loving, nurturing environment from the get-go. All the parental/societal rules and expectations will go out the window. Christ follows his or her own heart and gets constant inspiration from the shared Christ mind. Other Christs know and understand this.

4. When the infant Christ grows into adolescence, his or her parents will continue to support Christ's exploration of the world and ways to serve it. There won't be any fear. No 'Missing Person' report, no search party, no frantic search with cadaver dogs. There will only be trust in the power of love. This teenage Christ will support other Christs too, in unity and relationship. All of Christ knows this process deeply.

5. The transition to adulthood will be a smooth one because Christ has been functionally allowed to use his or her powers since the beginning of a life in form.

6. Here are some truths to deeply contemplate and discuss with others in the Christ community.

1. Christ does not accumulate trauma.

2. Because of this, it's highly unlikely that Christ would develop a drug or alcohol dependency.

3. Christ may or may not exercise or eat nutritious food every day, but Christ is happy being in his or her own body.

7. What can you envision life will be like for both Christ and Gaia when Christ is finally recognized as being all there truly is?

Living in the Material World – Epilogue

Sunday, January 23, 2022 6:30 am

1. Rami here. My work with you is complete. We have discussed some very ‘deep’ as they say, subject matter, concerning living in the world today. It has been carefully curated for those who seek to revisit it. If Christ loves more today than yesterday our project of modeling Christ's energy and using its ten distinct powers to create miracles will be a smashing success (eventually).

2. What's next? Christ is all about support, so we cannot fail to support each of you. There will always be something new over the horizon, something that will arrive here and now in perfect timing.

3. We enjoy these weekly addresses to the larger group, so you can continue to expect them. I Am passing the Christ collective off to a dear friend and colleague to so many of you: Mother Mary. She will speak to you weekly starting on Sunday, January 30th, 2022, through this same channel. Her series will be titled, “The Flowering of Christ”.

4. May peace be with each of you.

In love and service,

Rami
