

The Flowering of Christ 10

Wednesday, March 9, 2022 6:07 pm

1. When the going gets tough, the tough get going. Despite the unspeakable horrors in the world currently, we are unchanged. We are love incarnate and we stand tall to those who have decided to join the forces of darkness, against all that is good and holy. The sanctity of life means nothing to them and neither does their very own identity, a soul aspect of the Oneness, of God herself.
2. We gather to hear this message. No one can stop us. We pray for the souls of killers that they too may find peace and love. We pray for the millions who have fled their homes. May they follow their own hearts, one step at a time into the great unknown. We pray for the orphans and the families who have had members stolen from them. We stand tall. Love is the only answer.
3. Some may say, “What can love do? Love is no match for deranged murderers.” May I offer this to you? Hate has not met love yet.
4. My messages and other special addresses will take on a brand-new meaning in 2022. Please continue to share them and to promote material that has moved you from ‘A Journey into the Unknown’ and ‘Arrival: Living in the Material World’. This material and many other pieces of material from other channelers should be celebrated, not rejected and scorned. This is all that matters now. The ego is combusting. We must set the example and choose only love. Don’t be left behind. Move forward with us.
5. My first question is very pertinent.
6. “Mother Mary, I do not believe that there is a war going on, with all the atrocities that are reportedly happening. I think the news media is making this all up.”
7. My answer is simple. Love is not blind. Love knows. Don’t let your brain play tricks on you. See truly and honestly so you may transform the wretched and abominable to the beautiful.

1. Here's the next question.
2. "I have a hard time accepting that those who have left the earthly realm can still communicate with us, especially you, Mother Mary, or Jesus. It just seems too 'out there'."
3. My answer to this is a simple one and it will be a good one for individual contemplation or group discussion. It doesn't matter to us if you believe in communication from the so-called dead. Even though your brains are wired in ways that only allow you to believe that what your senses tell you is true, there is much more to life than what you see and hear. You are not getting the full picture. Part of it is intentionally missing and needs to be for the experience of being a human or other creature to have its full, limited effect.
4. The truth is that there is not death and you each have blinders on, but like I said, this isn't as important as the content of our messages. The content always addresses fear through the lens of unconditional love. It is very, very simple and easy to discern the content of our messaging. The fear originates with humans and the unconditional love originates from the soul level or the unseen realm.
5. Next question please. I love this one.
6. "Mother Mary, it was easy to give love when the world was normal, when everything and everyone was in their respective places, but now, the whole world is being turned upside down. How do we give love now, during so much destruction and uncertainty?"
7. The stakes are higher now, children. You are still responding with unconditional love. The big difference now is that the ugliness and brutality is in your face. It used to be just under the surface where you could ignore it or pretend it wasn't there. It has been unleashed from its cage. This ugliness, this hatred, this desire to control, to beat into a bloody submission is the new canvas for love to work with.
8. I wish I was inviting you to a lovely garden party in the English countryside. I truly do. I Am not, however. This ugliness is asking for love so please continue to bless and do what is in your power to do to alleviate suffering. This is your job now.
9. Christ will reign supreme but until then, it will be a rocky road for the world's inhabitants. Be the light that will never go out, to show the way to peace.
10. In the name of Christ, we move forward. We are not asking for permission. This is our action plan. This is our mandate from the highest. We are the hands and feet of God. We are the mouths of the Divine. We are one body now, finally.
11. In truth,
Mother Mary

Special Address

Sunday, March 13, 2022 5:00 am

1. Good day to you each. It is I, the one known as Jesus to some, Jeshua to others.
2. Let's remember our mission. The earth project is to provide opportunity after opportunity to express unconditional love within the context of relationship within situations. This voice, the voice of the soul, is quiet. The loud voice is the dominant voice, and it is the voice of insanity.
3. Choose the quiet voice of sanity and teach others to do the same. Don't be deceived. There is deception at levels that has never been seen before, due to the amplification of media, including social media.
4. It has become easier to tell what unconditional love is and what is not, so don't fall for all the lies that are circulating. God is not involved in politics. Egos are and certain egos would love for you to believe that they have been personally appointed by God to fight all the evildoers out there. God isn't involved in battles, as all are part of God.
5. It was said long ago in The Bible that "you shall know them by their fruits". Apply this principle whenever you are in doubt, and you will see clearly.
6. Don't get too attached to appearances because as you know, they can be quite deceiving. There are many wolves in sheep's clothing on the earth at this time. If they are involved in conflict in any way, shape, or form, you can be certain that they are not on the path of love, at least not at this time.
7. There has been great confusion about the concept of characters and the plays they play in. The rule of thumb is that the Director allows characters to write their own scripts and this they do, to advance their own policies and ambitions. It has little or nothing to do with love.
8. Love is all there is.
Jesus/Jeshua
