Sunday, July 10, 2022 6:30 am

1. Reflection for serious contemplation, journaling, or discussion:

Can I use my brain artfully and allow it to gather observable facts, without delving into why things unfold as they do?

2. Daily Applications

3. Beginning of the Week Affirmation:

I Am a soul whose only purpose in being here is to support all other souls.

4. Days 1-7

AM

How am I feeling today?

Follow-up Question: What does my soul want to do today?

Mid-Day

When I gaze out into the world, what are the observable facts behind what I see and hear?

PM

Returning to my mid-day reflection, can I bless all souls involved in any specific situation, without condemning anyone?

5. Daily Affirmation:

Judgments are a curse. There are far too many of them here and I will not add to them. I Am only here to bless.

6. End of Week Affirmation:

Speculation, blaming, and shaming are in the realm of the ego. The divine soul of God only extends its loving blessings.
