

The Flowering of Christ – Resurrection 1

Sunday, July 24, 2022 4:45 am

1. Hark, the angels sing! I have returned and we are reunited, together at last. It is I, Mother Mary, and I have returned with a holy purpose of joining with a human army, a cadre of souls, who only love and bless, with judgment left behind. I thank each of you for sticking with us and I thank my tag team partner, St. Germain, for laying out an exquisitely detailed series of daily reflections to keep our aim pure. This cadre of souls joins with the unseen members of the same body, not as a hybrid model of ego and Divine, but only Divine. We are here to bless God in humankind. Yes, you heard me correctly. We are here to bless God in humankind. Let this reality sink in because we are functioning in the reality of truth now, not illusion. We hear God calling to us and we are here to answer.
2. I love each one of you, the shining stars of humankind. We are not limited to communion on Sundays. I may want to reach out throughout the week and if so, Rick will send them with Sunday's address, a tradition we started with during the initial 'Flowering of Christ' sessions.
3. I will only present one question today. They have piled up and we will start to dive in next week.
4. 'Mother Mary, when we bless another, where does the blessing go? Who is calling for love?'
5. Thank you, my loves, this one is being asked by many of you. The answer is that the soul is calling for love. God is calling for love. God is calling for help. You can think of it as a prayer from God to God. It is not coming from the character, but the character is being difficult, is resisting their own soul, so the soul is calling us, a human cadre of souls, for help.
6. You can think of it this way. You are putting another log on a small fire. You are fanning the flame. You are amplifying God's voice, the soul. You may see the difficult situation the character is in, but it is the soul we are concerned most with, children. We honor our Self by honoring God in others, not criticizing, not damning, not blaming, but loving. This is how God grows and it is the only way. Cursing characters doesn't facilitate soul growth, sorry.
7. It is my pleasure now to present this week's 'Secrets of Christ'.
8. 'Secrets of Christ 2
The second secret of Christ is that the soul always knows what to do, what to say, and how to say it. It knows when being quiet is best. It can be trusted. It is a little microcosm of God. When God speaks, the Cadre of Souls listens.'
9. I am beyond thrilled to be back for our second season. We have been given the green light from on high to continue our work, so let's get busy blessing God, blessing the one Self.
10. Remember, Love equals power.
Love, Mother Mary
