

The Flowering of Christ - Resurrection 5

Sunday, August 21, 2022 5:30 am

1. Good day to all. As promised, I want to bring my dear friend and sister, Mary Magdalene, into our conversation. Unlike the world of ego, in the spiritual dimension, we do not have differences of opinion, as there is only love. We do have differences in experiences and levels of experiences however and we all treasure and value these differences greatly as they strengthen the whole. They don't weaken us at all; they make us better. In your world, individual and collective egos cast out and punish the nonconformist because they fear them. They fear their freedom of spirit and secretly wish they themselves could be so free. I have asked Mary to answer a question or two from her own deeply valued experience of love. Remember, these statements aren't opinions. They are from her experience of truth, and we need to hear these now more than ever. Now, I will hand it off to Mary. I will rejoin the conversation next Sunday, August 28th, 2022. Love, Mother Mary.

2. Hello, comrades. Mary Magdalene here. I must say that I've always felt comfortable being with you. I have made some contributions here and there to the pandemic-era writings. It's exciting to know that the truth and the freedom it brings is finally coming out or pouring out to put it more accurately. Here is a question I would like to answer.

3. 'Why are we so intolerant and unaccepting of new things, challenging things, unusual presentations, people who don't walk in lock step?'

4. The brain isn't wired that way. There are plenty of strong-willed nonconformists around who simply don't care what others think, but it is conditioning and fear of being punished or excluded. I experienced this first-hand, but I did have some support in the group that accompanied Jesus. I say some because there were individuals who were embarrassed to be seen with the likes of me. They had reputations to uphold, you know. Jesus never made me feel judged or feel bad about myself. He only taught love. So, to answer the question, life can be a trial by fire for those of us who dance to our souls' own music, but the reward is that you simply don't care about the criticism, whether it is coming from one or thousands. Egos don't have any power over a free soul, only enslaved ones. This happens in so many ways. Egos couldn't stop the pandemic writings because free souls wanted to receive them and join in the conversation about living as a free soul. This is just one example of this topic but a very poignant one, since I'm talking to free souls, Christs, in 2022.

5. I want to address one more question.

6. 'What steps can I take to embrace my own desire to break away from people and beliefs that are controlling in nature?'

7. Start to see yourself as a lovely gift. Share your strong soul and sense of individuality. Teach others to let go and give themselves permission to question. Each question loosens the grip others try to exert. You might pay the price, but freedom and truth are always worth it. As they say, 'the truth will set them (and you) free'.

8. In love and admiration,
Mary Magdalene

Secrets of Christ 6

Sunday, August 21, 2022 6:22 am

1. As presented by Mary Magdalene.
2. Someone can try to tell Christ what to read, do or be but they will fail. As Glinda so wisely said in 'The Wizard of Oz' while speaking to the Wicked Witch, 'Be gone. You have no power here'.
