

The Flowering of Christ / Resurrection 8

Sunday, September 11, 2022 7:15 am

1. Greetings, Christs. I wish to speak briefly today on the concept of being Christ, being love and peace, being gentle, and being assertive without using aggression. This is clearly not the way of the ego. Many Christians in the world operate from a premise of what they are against. These groups and individuals are being looked at and questioned by other groups of Christians, who follow the example of Jesus in the New Testament.

2. The group of Christs who I Am speaking to now has followed both Jesus and me in the sense of succeeding us as examples of being God in mankind. You have more background and knowledge of both the ego and your true Self, the soul. This complete educational background has prepared you to simply be that. When you're off track, just remember your true identity to operate from a place of love once again. This is a day in history when the concept of not just being Christ-like, but being Christ is needed as an example more than ever. You each show that it is, indeed, possible to leave the world of ego forever and still be in the world, blessing and doing. Your attention and willingness to be involved in this most important work, have been noticed and appreciated.

3. Many blessings to the blessers.

Love, Mother Mary

1. As presented by Mary Magdalene
2. That which you achieve as Christ, leaves an indelible imprint, wherever you may go. Others may not like you, but they will always remember you. You're the one who doesn't play the game. You're real.
