

The Flowering of Christ / Resurrection 14

Sunday, October 23, 2022 6:45 am

1. Greetings everyone. I Am glad we spent some time last week talking about how characters can accept or reject blessings, and that blessings always wait until someone is ready to receive them.
2. This is an insightful group. All of you can read between the lines, but let's just be upfront and say a few things. If the soul only blesses (and it does) and if it only loves (and it does), this can only mean one thing. Everything that you have experienced in your own lives and everything you observe in other people's lives that isn't love, isn't pure bliss, is resistance to love. It's ego, pure and simple.
3. The ego is always pulling the character away from the soul, away from love. Therefore, problems and difficulties of all sorts are created from the ego's pull away from the soul. This means that anytime you are clearly observing turmoil, large and small, then you are observing the ego resist the soul firsthand. Likewise, if you observe harmony, you are witnessing the power of the soul.
4. God, the soul, love, always produce harmony. The ego on the other hand always produces consternation, disease, hatred, and unpleasant circumstances of all types.
5. Now that this is clearly stated, let's take time to look at the fourth power of Christ, which is the power to grant wishes and desires. Does this mean that you walk around, bless people, and the next thing you know, you are seeing them move into mansions and drive expensive cars? No, dears. These things could hurt soul development. What this power accomplishes is that it moves what is blocking wishes and desires out of the way. What is the wish and desire of all souls (including yours)? More peace, more tranquility, and more love. Easy Peasy. Now, look at when moving things out of the way or getting rid of things produced more love in your life experience.
6. Until next week. Love always.
7. Love, Mother Mary
