

The Flowering of Christ / Resurrection 16

Sunday, November 6, 2022 6:30 am

1. Just like clockwork, here we are again. Greetings to all. Today, we will discuss the sixth power of Christ, which is the power to change situations and outcomes. Before we do so, let's review a few basics. It isn't our task to complete the work of another soul. Each soul has a list of goals to work on with their character. Completing the work on the list is the responsibility of that soul. What we are doing is giving a helping hand, giving an electrical charge, and providing a pick-me-up. I won't say that's all we are doing because it's a lot, but we don't take responsibility over. Just as if there is something that is yours to do as Christ, then other Christs can help you to accomplish it, but it is still yours to accomplish. I feel like this group is discovering what a deep concept blessing others is, and how layered and nuanced it is.
2. The sixth power of Christ is to help souls to move stubborn characters away from things they are holding onto because they are familiar and comfortable. From the soul's viewpoint, the character may be stuck in a rut or clinging onto harmful behaviors or unhealthy relationships because they are afraid to leave them behind. If a character is stuck, so is their soul. Look around and notice those in situations they don't like, but perhaps they don't know how to open up to new possibilities. With your blessing, a stronger soul can help them to do just that.
3. Until next week, love and bless always.
4. Love, Mother Mary

1. As presented by Mary Magdalene...
2. Today's secret isn't really a secret. Blessing others is not a form of magical thinking. It is part of how a very complicated machine and system known as God, helps Itself.
