

The Flowering of Christ / Resurrection 20

Sunday, December 4, 2022 6:15 am

1. Hello everyone. Let's make a toast to the team that has been working so hard and so tirelessly these past 34 months. Without them, none of what we have been able to achieve would have been possible. It was thankless and oftentimes controversial. Who knew love was so controversial? We've all learned and grown along the way.
2. Now, let's make a toast to each of you, the modern-day Christs. The one thing all of you have in common is that you listen to your own souls. When the soul speaks, you listen to what love is asking you to do and you do it. In this case, you kept reading and when others told you that none of these pandemic-era writings were true, you simply didn't listen and kept going. You didn't need anyone's permission, except your own, so here's to you and here's to us, the modern-day body of Christ.
3. This is the final piece of writing for the pandemic-era writings, but we have numerous books in storage that will seep out in the coming years when the time is right for them to become known. We have reached a point where we have taken interested readers on a journey that acknowledges their mature souls and explores what they can do in the modern world that they live in. Then we in the unseen realm introduced ourselves and developed or deepened relationships. Known souls who have left their bodies spoke about their takeaways from their lifetimes on Earth. We time-traveled and explored. The concept of Christ or God in man was carefully introduced as a synonym for the true Self or the mature soul. Christ offices were opened, and the concept of extension or blessing was emphasized. The demonization of the evil other visited our group as some readers started to believe made-up stories that had been spreading over the internet. They closed shops because of arrogance and simply forgetting to ask their souls if these theories were true, as there is no evil other. Our numbers dwindled but those who are reading this now continued. You were the Christ offices that couldn't be knocked down and weathered the storm.
4. St. Germain provided a refresher course on judgment, and I returned to answer more questions, finally finishing up with the ten powers and twenty secrets of Christ. All the writings embrace unconditional love and love is what is still standing. We aren't going anywhere but will spend the next year meeting less often and cocooning in deep contemplation at the soul level for my new masters' series.
5. All of this happened in less than 3 years, interestingly. You have all heard that the ministry of Jesus was about three years long. Coincidence or by design? We will revisit this topic in 2023. I will leave you to ponder this.
6. Now, we must address the tenth power of Christ. It is just one more misunderstood concept. It is the power to manifest. Unlike what you may have heard, characters don't manifest anything. They beg, borrow and steal. They buy. They find ways to get what they want. This has nothing to do with the power of Christ to manifest. The soul does manifest situations that will help it to achieve its goals and sometimes this could include material things. It isn't that the universe wants you to have the perfect designer coat in the window just because you would look good in it or just so that you will be happy. That's not what we are talking about here. Characters frequently block their souls from manifesting, but your blessing can help counter this.

7. I'm not saying goodbye. You can't get rid of me, even if you wanted to (smile). I think you will appreciate the new format. Our work continues. We have a lot of irons in the fire.

8. Until January, love only and bless often.

9. Love, Mother Mary
