

Departure – The Mystery of God 4

April: What does God want to do in my life?

Sunday, April 2, 2023 1:40 am

1. Simply put, the answer to the question is to convince you to relinquish control. The God in you can accomplish so much more than the ego in you ever could. It wants to form relationship through dominance to the ego, and then it wants to take a journey and find more of itself through other mind/body vehicles.
2. While God goes by many different names and has many different appearances, its core substance is the same. My name and collection of experiences is 'Mother Mary', and 'Jesus' and 'St. Germain' are God too, so they are also part of me. It will be easier to think of God's energy as a family collective instead of different forms of 'me', but both concepts are correct. God is the singular in the multiplicity of seemingly unrelated things. I like to think of characters as decimal numbers for soul dominance. Jane may be a .175 and someone else may currently be a 3.25 while a third person may be a 75.79 percent. Not everyone has the same potency of God's energy, and this is because of the great design here. Most egos will do anything and everything not to relinquish control to the soul, but we are talking about God here and God created the ego as a strength-building tool, so souls are guaranteed to win out in the end. How could they not? Remember that old expression about living to see another day or fighting the good fight until the end? Well, this isn't exactly a fair fight. It is stacked disproportionately in God's favor.
3. Let's call this section the introduction. These will be the remaining talking points this month...
 - 2 – Taking the blinders off
 - 3 – Seeing clearly
 - 4 – Understanding myself and others
4. 2 – Taking the blinders off:

Most humans have physical eyesight but are blind to the truth. Nothing makes sense to them and nothing has made sense to you either. Your soul or God is in the business of showing your ego some things or pointing some things out to it. It does this by pointing in the direction of love instead of in the direction of judgment. It wants you to see the soul in others instead of what is more apparent. It wants you to see yourself in everyone you meet, in every situation.
5. 3 – Seeing clearly:

Once you understand where fear-based language and behavior come from, then you can see the love that is there too. Let's face it, there was love present on your very worst day with your worst language and your worst behavior. There was love present, and after the ashes settled love helped you or tried to help you, if you were willing, to see things differently. Seeing things differently is to perceive differently. What are we describing here? That's right. This is the true meaning of a miracle.
6. 4 – Understanding myself and others:

God, in the form of your soul, only wants one thing. It wants honesty. It wants to be acknowledged. It wants acceptance. Judgment and condemnation are not honest evaluations. While mistakes are made in your decision-making from time to time, love will always see another day to point you in the right direction. Let's face it, God is really the only thing here. It is the eternal flame on a vast playdate with the temporary.

7. Don't forget, everyone. Jesus will address this group next Sunday, on Easter Day, April 9th, 2023. Have a wonderful month letting your soul reveal where love is. It is everywhere.

8. Love (only),
Mother Mary

End Time: 2:38 am
