

Departure: The Mystery of God, Final Installment

December: Who and What is God Part Two

Sunday, December 3, 2023 2:45 am

1. If everything and everyone is God, then this simplifies things quite a bit, doesn't it? I know what you're thinking. How could someone who has done something destructive be God? Just think of that person or that group as a construction site with one of those signs that says "Under Construction".
2. You have been God since the beginning of time when you split off to have your series of adventures where the goal was only one thing. You were to find your divinity in a world that was designed to make that as impossible as possible. That's it in the simplest of terms. I Am and always have been God and so have you.
3. You may not always feel like God, but what does God feel like? It feels like what you feel, simply put. We must put away all our preconceived ideas about God when we talk about the reality of the situation. God is a touchy subject and the idea of each of you being God is a taboo one.
4. There is no 'you' to master anything. There is only God. Your true Self, Christ (God in man/woman), your soul, God. They are all synonyms. This is mastery friends. God mastered you.
5. This was a lovely way to spend a year, my dears. I want to thank all of you for being present each month and I want to thank Rick for making this a priority in his busy day. Thank you to those who discuss each installment in groups and to those who silently contemplate them independently. Thank you to Christina and Colin for preserving and including Departure on the Arrival website.
6. I will not be a stranger but will pass the baton to Jesus, who will explain what is next in God's development.
7. In love always,
Mother Mary

End Time: 3:10 am

Note to readers: See also today's [Special Message 10, and revisit the first part of Who and What is God in Departure - The Mystery of God 2, February 2023, Installment 61]