Truth Telling

Sunday, March 17, 2024 12:00 pm

1. Why should you always tell the truth, tell it like it is, tell it as you see it, as messengers of the great Divine life force? I will tell you why, but I think you already know. This world is based on the ego's projections and perceptions. None of it is true. None of it meets the standard of truth and meets the mark. None of it. None of it is 100% true, 100% of the time. None of it. Quit trying to find truth where there is none.

2. The world and all of its inhabitants reflect an artificial reality with only shreds of truth here and there. Only shreds. Don't waste your valuable time looking for truth in the world. Look at yourSelf. Look at the Christ within. Look at the God within. Look at your soul, not your character, not your mind, not your ego and its perceptions and projections. Your soul will tell you the truth 100% of the time, at the 100% level.

3. Let your soul or the God within show you what is true and what is not true yet. Truth is like a cake. It has to be baked to perfection. But truth is not as simple as baking a cake at 350° for 17 minutes. Truth in this artificial reality takes lifetimes of really difficult hard knocks and extremely difficult situations. But in the end, look at what happened with your character. It ended up with a soul of God in the driver's seat. It ended up with the truth front and center.

4. Since you are Christ now, you are the truth now. Speak from that place. Speak from your heart, with love and without fear.

5. In Christ,
Jesus

Truth Telling in Practice

Sunday, March 17, 2024 12:35 pm

1. Say, 'I see you as you are'. 'I hear what you are telling me'. 'I know that this event or situation is hard for you'. 'I love you and am here when you want to talk'. 'I will listen and sometime or oftentimes, talking can be healing'.
2. What is really transpiring when you are the trusted listener? You are providing an opportunity to gain understanding. How? By silently infusing love into this pain-filled situation. The love from you, from your soul, will go directly toward their soul. That's where the comfort and support will really come from. You will be fanning a tiny spark and helping it to turn into a small flame that will one day have the power of a forest fire – one of truth and love that will assist the character who stands before you to have the clarity and wisdom that the expansive and fiery soul can provide.
3. Don't lie and say things like, 'it will get better' because maybe it will, but maybe it won't. You don't know how much the involved soul can provide because you don't know the resistance level of the character vehicle. In this world, it is the character's ego that has the last say and can delay surrender indefinitely.
4. Know that what people tell you is in fact their reality and the reality of this world as a whole, as splintered and fractured as it is. Respect that, but know that Christ, as you, can help on a much deeper level too. Christ works on the surface and inside. Christ is a miracle worker, leading to changes in perception from mind to heart.
5. In Christ,
Mother Mary

Truth Telling at all Costs

Saturday, March 23, 2024 8:05 am

1. It may not make you popular around town or around internet chat rooms, but telling the truth, whether it's gently or bluntly, is part and parcel with living as Christ. None of you will be given your own TV show where you will be expected to smile and politely dance around topics. Christ just can't do that because Christ is invested in truth telling at all costs, even if it may offend someone or stop a relationship dead in its tracks.
2. Christ does not ever intend to upset someone or cause offense, but Christ knows that these reactions are likely to happen with some or many egos. Christ is not the loudest voice in the room, but if he or she is asked for a response that comes from a place of knowing (not a reaction or opinion that comes from speculation), then Christ will and must provide it. There may be souls who want to have their characters hear the truth for the first time or the millionth time. Save your dancing for the nightclub and don't be afraid to be the voice of reason, consequences be damned. Don't dance around the truth because God's viewpoints will not be clearly understood. The ego's viewpoint will not be challenged and no progress will be made.
3. Christ only loves and love does not always come in the form of soft spreadable butter. Sometimes, love is hard and tough. Don't be afraid to get in the trenches with love. What will love have you say about any of the tough issues of the day? It may not be popular, but it will help listeners' souls to grow.
4. I can be serious from time to time. This one is straight from my heart to yours.
5. In Christ,
St. Germain
