

Living in the Material World 35

Wednesday, November 24, 2021 5:56 am

1. Rami here. This week let's do things a little bit differently. Let's 'shake things up' as they say. Let's reflect and 'chill out'. While we look at the construction site that is Christ.

2. It has a solid foundation, and the first floor is built. This is where each Christ office is located. The sky is the limit for how many levels we can add, but for now, we have the beginnings of what will be the structural components of a new earth. We are using symbolism in our language and the foundation of the new earth is of course, truth. The same cannot be said of the old paradigm, which must be passed through in order to get to the part where we are now.

3. Now is the time of the great shift in thought. Now is the time of the harvest and the new beginning.

Living in the Material World 36

1. Rami here. The harvest is the gathering of the crops. In this specific case, it is the gathering of fully mature souls that have taken over their assigned bodies and characters. These souls started their journeys in seed form, much like an apple seed that grew into a big strong tree that eventually produced delicious fruit. This comparison is a good one, with one exception, which is that the journey of the soul typically takes much longer than that of an apple seed. In addition, unlike an apple tree, a soul is immortal and cannot be harmed in any way. It can appear in and out of time and go through both growth periods in time and dormant periods, in-between lifetimes, in time outside of time.
2. What is it again that is harvested? Christ is harvested. It is being gathered as I speak. How is it being gathered? It is being gathered through the support we are providing, as well as the support each Christ office is providing through unity and relationship. There is a great deal of sharing going on and this is part of the harvest as well, a crucial part of it.
3. This is a good time to acknowledge the one known as Christina. If she had not been willing to stick her neck out and do all the hard work in collecting, organizing and promoting this material, there would be no harvest. She did all of this simply because she knew it was the right thing to do. It wasn't the popular thing to do but she was going to respond, and her response is what has gotten us to this point. Without Christina, these sacred writings would still be in meticulously organized notebooks, unseen by those who needed to see them. If there is a true hero in this story, it is Christina, the modern day, gatherer of souls.

Living in the Material World 37

Friday, November 26, 2021 5:30 am

1. Rami here. A Journey into Unknown was going to be written but it wasn't guaranteed that it would be lived. Since it was to be a living work, a living testament of Christ, it needed to be seen by an audience that had gathered to experience it. The gatherer of souls, Christina, and her team enabled this to happen. There was blind faith because no one knew exactly what it was, who it was for, or what it would become. It was a strange and yet pleasantly surprising experience for the readers, thanks to Christina, et al. 'Word' (meaningful slang for truth spoken).

2. The one known as Rick doesn't like to talk about himself, but he must write down what we provide, so he doesn't have much say in the matter, now does he (smile)? Let's just say that he's very much like an embedded journalist. His soul is on a mission to do this work. It's his life's mission that is only coming to fruition now. The one known as Rick is actually from the nether regions and is on our executive team. This is his most interesting assignment so far. Right, Rick?

3. Nothing is as it seems, Christ offices. None of you are who you appear to be either. You are who you see in the mirror, and you are so much more. You are the face looking back and the mystery behind it.

Living in the Material World 38

Saturday, November 27, 2021 6:00 am

1. Rami here. This will be my last message to you this week. Tomorrow's will be given by a very special guest.
2. The sky's the limit when Christ gives love to love. Rick and Christina have built the foundation for the new earth with their willingness to serve, even under duress at times. Now, all the Christ offices have the opportunity to help our movement away from fear toward unconditional love, by simply being love and if prompted or called to do so, responding with love, helping it to grow and flourish.
3. You are each a sun of light, blessing everyone and everything you encounter. There is not one person on this earth that you will reject because Christ does not judge and condemn. It only blesses each one on their journey, however that needs to be, and whatever that looks like to human eyes. All paths lead back to God in the end.
4. Christ is the blessing the world has longed for. The characters may not appreciate it and may deeply fear it, but their souls are very appreciative. The calvary has finally arrived. Sanity is here!

Living in the Material World 39

Sunday, November 28, 2021 2:02 am

1. Greetings, Christs. It is I, the one known as Jesus. If human nature and all that it entails isn't really an issue anymore, then it makes sense that life in the Kingdom will be very different than life in the human concocted world. Let's spend the next few Sundays drawing up a blueprint for what we are envisioning. Shall we?
2. One of the biggest ways that the ego influences other egos is through the area of entertainment. Most egos feel that they need constant stimulation through mind-based pursuit of pleasure, but Christ has a different approach.
3. Christ is happy to sit under a tree or take a walk to feed the ducks, so entertainment will be used to enhance the experience of living a life of love. Everything from music to plays to novels and movies will be used to share experiences of love. They will reflect love's viewpoint, so the meat of human entertainment, namely sex and violence of all types will be relegated as relics of the past.
4. In the Kingdom, everyone will be free to and encouraged to create art that reflects the perfect joy that its occupants feel each and every day. Entertainment will be a vehicle to support everyone in the Kingdom. It will not be lurid and exploitative because everyone will only want to explore what love offers. Will it be sticky sweet? It's unlikely. It will be rich, textured and most importantly, real, because love is real. It isn't fake and contrived.
5. When love is all there is, there will be a true renaissance on the planet and entertainment will just be a new way to spread more goodness and joy, in unlimited ways.
6. Love and blessings, Jesus
